UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME HESBURGH LECTURE SERIES

TROUBLED WATERS: CHALLENGES IN 21ST CENTURY WATER LAW & POLICY

PRESENTED BY

The St. Thomas More Society of the Diocese of Wilmington

The Notre Dame Clubs of Delaware and Philadelphia

Prof. Bruce Huber
University of Notre Dame School of Law

TUESDAY, JUNE 10, 2025 • 6:00 P.M.

1201 N. MARKET STREET, WILMINGTON, DE 19801
FIRST FLOOR MEETING ROOM

Free parking is available nearby in the Hercules Building garage at 1313 N. Market St. (please note the 1201 N. Market garage closes at 7:00 p.m.)

Prof. Huber teaches and conducts research in the areas of environmental law, natural resources law, property, and energy law. His particular areas of expertise include energy regulation, public land and resource management, and the interaction between law and politics. His scholarship has been published in journals including the California Law Review, the Harvard Environmental Law Review, and the Georgetown Law Journal.

6:00 p.m. - Light Refreshments / 6:30 p.m. - Lecture and Audience Q&A

Questions? Please contact Matt Boyer at mboyer@connollygallagher.com